SATURDAY MORNING, DEC. 1, 1860.

To the Public.

THE SENTINEL, having double the circulation IN THE CITY, and more than treble OUT OF IT, of any other paper here, renders it far the cheapest and most desirable medium in Milwaukee for all classes of Advertisements.

New York—Official.

The official vote of New York, as declared by the State Canvassers at Albany on the 26th ult., (including the two counties from which returns are not received, and which are set down as reported in all the papers,) stands as follows:

Lincoln Electors	362,646
Fusion Electors	312,510
Maj. for Lincoln	50,136

The Canvassers not having received returns from Orange and Sullivan counties, completed the canvass without their vote, and adjourned to meet December 7, to canvass the State ticket.

A VIRGINIA M. C. TO HIS CONSTITUENTS.—SHERRARD CLEMENS, a Democratic Member of Congress from the Wheeling District of Virginia, writes a letter to his constituents condemning the "hot and indecent haste of South Carolina," and winding up with a very emphatic declaration:

"I shall obey no command except that which comes from you. If you should differ in opinion with me; if you should think that treason to the confederacy should be dignified with the name of patriotism, let your instructions meet me at Washington, and I will at once resign into your hands all the official power which you have so generously conferred upon me.

Your obliged fellow-citizen,
SHERRARD CLEMENS."

SINGULAR FATAL ACCIDENT.—We learn from the Sauk City Pioneer, that a hearty young man named HOSIG, a native of Switzerland, received a fatal wound in the town of Honey Creek, about two weeks ago in the following singular manner: He had been drinking somewhat, and in attempting to get over a fence, got caught by his boot, as is supposed, and fell face foremost upon a small stump or stub, which pierced through his eye, and entered the brain. He died two or three days after.

EARLY CLOSING OF THE WISCONSIN.—The Wisconsin river froze completely over, opposite the town of Merrimack, on Friday of last week, being the earliest occurrence of the kind which has happened in the memory of the oldest inhabitant, says the Baraboo Republic.

Misconduct of Tom Sayers—He Holds on to the Belt.

[From Bell's Life in London.]

THE CHAMPION'S BELT.—This trophy was to have been given to Hurst on Friday, to enable him to make a triumphal entry therein to Staleybridge, but owing to the misconduct of Tom Sayers, to whom it was lent for a special object some weeks back, and by whom it was not returned, we were unable to hand it over. Sayers applied to us for the loan of the belt for one week when he was to take a benefit in the North, and we willingly lent it, on his understanding to return it to Mr. Hancock, the jeweler, in whose custody we had placed it, at the expiration of the week. We naturally expected he had kept his word; but on Friday, when application was made to Mr. Hancock, we discovered that Sayers had never been near the place since he obtained the belt. We think, after the numerous kindnesses he has received at our hands, such conduct as this is most unpardonable. He knew perfectly well that the fight for the Championship had taken place, and that the belt would be required, and yet he took no steps whatever to return it, nor did he even let us know his whereabouts, so that we might communicate with him. It strikes us that prosperity has raised this man so much above himself, that he is utterly selfish, and thinks of nothing beyond his own ends. We must request that he instantly take steps to forward the belt either to ourselves or to Sam Hurst, at Mr. Hayde's, White House, Staleybridge, paying all expenses of carriage, etc. We have learned a lesson by Tom's conduct on this occasion which we shall not easily forget.

It is rumored in some of the English sporting papers that TOM means to cut the belt in twain and send half of it to HEENAN.

The Kansas Troubles—The Other Side of the Story.

LAWRENCE, K. T., Nov. 23.

The whole country is imposed upon by the reports of the Kansas difficulties. I advise all to await the facts before judging.—Junge Williams who has so deceived the public, is a frightened old dotard, unworthy of credulence. His court has not been molested; Fort Scott has not been attacked; Paris, or any other place, has not been sacked; Montgomery's party has not entered Missouri, and never intended to; not one cent has been given him, or his men, from recent Eastern contributions; no arms or munitions have been sent them, as reported. All their arms have been in the territories for years, and I challenge contrary proof.—All such statements as Williams has made are vile fabrications, that are doing our people infinite wrong. Let the public charge it either to his malice or ignorance. It is admitted, however, that exciting events are upon us. WM. HUTCHINSON.

Spirit of Washington Letters.

HAS TANEY RESIGNED?

The Cincinnati Gazette's dispatch says

HE HAS NOT.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.

The report of Judge Taney's resignation, as related by the enterprising correspondent of the Herald, I am able to state, on the best authority, is not correct.

The N. Y. World's dispatch says

HE HAS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.

It is true that Chief Justice Taney has resigned, though the announcement was not intended to be made until it was ascertained to a certainty that Attorney General Black could be confirmed.

The N. Y. Times' dispatch says

HE HASN'T BUT IS GOING TO.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.

The announcement of Judge Taney's resignation is premature. He will resign as soon as it is ascertained that Judge Black's nomination can be confirmed.

SUN STRUCK.—The editor was signally sun struck on the 21st inst. The ray was ascertained to contain near nine pounds of gravitation, avoirdupois. He has since so far recovered his equilibrium, as to be able to write this short article, and is happy to be able to say that all the parties are doing as well as could be expected, considering the lunar obscurations, and occasional night squalls.—Richland Co. Observer.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—We learn that a man by the name of Wiley, living in the town of Rockbridge, about ten miles north of this place, was so badly injured by the limb of a tree falling and striking him on the head, that he died the following day. He leaves a wife and several relations to mourn his untimely death.—Richland Co. Observer.

A New Compromise.

NEW YORK, Nov. 30—8 P. M.

It is understood that Geo. Briggs M. C. from this city, has prepared a detailed plan for a new compromise, substantially like the Albany Journal's plan, with the resolution of the Missouri compromise line West of the Rocky Mountains, as the main feature.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 29.

Hon. Hannibal Hamlin, Vice President elect, has been in this city for two days.—He dines to-day with Mayor Senter and leaves for Washington on to-night's train.

The Terrible Gale Last Week.

We clip from the Buffalo Courier a graphic account of the dreadful gale of Saturday last, and of one incident connected therewith:

"People who turned in their beds before midnight Friday were lulled into slumber by the sound of a drizzling shower, and the low murmur of a sluggish breeze; but those who walked the streets or were awake within doors until an hour or two later, felt the air grow chill as the rain ceased to fall, and heard a murmur deeper than the breeze swell from the darkness above the distant bay. The heavy mist which had clung around the buildings faded and disappeared, and particles of sleet shifted hurryingly by the rising gale, filled all the atmosphere. Ere one o'clock it had become a wild night—fit for the Laplands. A night of gloom and snow, and roaring winds, that surged along the avenues of the slumbering city, and shook the towers and steeples until they groaned in every stone and timber. Glorious musical winds to those who love a tempest for its grandeur's sake, and lie and dream of strife and battle, while it revels. Prowling, remorseless winds, that searched the alleys and broken-windowed cellars, and crevices of attics, and the chinks of the miserable cabins where poverty and guilt, robed in rags, shivered, and drank and cursed. Roaming, terrible winds, chasing the dismal winds on to the South, and combing the waters of old Lake Erie into locks of foam.

As the hours advanced, the gale became more violent. The wails of dwellings shuddered and swayed amid its fury, the chimneys groaned, and window blinds were flung back crashingly. Lights grew fast in chamber windows, where those who could not sleep arose, built fires and sat around them, telling of other tempests, wondering how high the waves had risen on the shore, and if there were many vessels out upon the lake in that wild storm? The twilight of the morning came, and still the winds, loaded with snow, grew louder and stronger, and the sun rose unseen above the frozen earth, and over the dim lake, whose deep and angry bosom was borne to the ear in fitful swells. It was not until noon that the gale began to lull, and the snow ceased falling sufficiently to enable the vision to penetrate to any distance. As soon as an opportunity occurred, crowds of people began to radiate from Main street to the harbor and the shore, in order to ascertain the full effects of the storm.

THE HARBOR AND THE BEACH.

It was found that the waters of the harbor had risen so high during the night as to have very nearly overflowed the docks near Commercial street, and the waves came roaring in at a rate that threatened to swamp the ferry scows that plied to and fro. The surge broke very high at the foot of Erie street, and along the lake shore below the break-water the force of the waves was terrific As billow after billow came charging in, it was shattered into foam against the line of piles which protect the Niagara Falls Railway embankment, and blown by the hurrying winds across the track, and over the roofs of the cabins on "The Patch." The occupants of these had been obliged to leave their wretched shelters before morning, as the water dripped through the roofs upon them as they slept. The track, the "Round House," and the huts referred to were covered with a mantle of ice; for the foam was frozen almost as it fell. The Canada Dock below was pelted terribly with the surf, and the schooner America, which had been foolishly moored alongside, bumped against the piles with a violence that threatened to weaken her timbers materially.

But the view from the Lookout near the end of the harbor pier—whither hundreds had congregated, drawn thither by the foreboding of marine disaster—was the most impressive. The lake, yet unsoothed by the lull of the winds, stretched, black and angry, into distances of cloud and mist.—The Chautauque shore was designated only by a line of foam, and along the bend of the bay, near the city an army of long, unbroken, lofty surges charged like regiments of white-plumed cavalry, forever inward. They roared up the front of the Light House Pier, and beat against the barriers that are stretched along the beach, and overflooded farms, and menaced the doors of dwellings, and everywhere they left an icy impress.

A GALLANT RESCUE.

About two o'clock a schooner, which afterwards proved to be the Comet, Capt. Eastwick, was discovered ashore, one mile beyond the Toll Bridge, off Tift's farm. She lay broadside to the beach, about twenty rods from the shore, and the breakers swept over her with terrific violence. The life-boat near the mouth of the creek was immediately manned by a dozen men—among whom were Capts. E. P. Dorr and D. P. Dobbins—and, after being rowed up the creek to a point opposite the unfortunate vessel, was dragged across the beach by a team. An opening was here made in the barrier or fence, which serves to keep the surf in check at high water, and through this opening the boat was pushed and launched.

The following men were among her crew: Capt. Jas. McKnight, of the Norway; Capt. David Vance, of the Badger State; Capt E. Close, of the Wm. Fiske; Capt. Jas. Murray, of the Metropolis; Capt. Geo. Frederickson, of the Mary Stockton, Capt. Clark, of the Perseverance; Capt. Rodgers, of the Contest, and two or three others whose names we could not ascertain. As the boat pushed on, her rowers were spurred onward by a hearty cheer from the spectators assembled on the shore. Their light craft skipped over the summits of the breakers like a seabird, hailed with feeble shouts of welcome from the crew of the Comet, who were huddled together in the forecastle, scarcely daring to lift their heads above the deck for fear of a renewed "ducking," by the thundering seas that swept over the vessel like a spasmodic water-fall.

The men of the life-boat, as they gained her side, dauntlessly braved the drenching billow fluxes, sprang aboard, and hurrying to the forecastle, helped its shivering occupants forth, and dumped them promiscuously into their refuge. Captain Eastwick was so overcome by the fatigues of the night that he was obliged to be carried to the boat, which, with its double compliment of men, left immediately for land. It was necessary to make port through the opening in the "barrier." This feat proved to be an impossible one. The enormous strength of the surges overcame the cunning of the steersman's oar, and the boat was flung broadside to against the "barrier," where she was instantly swamped, and swept outward by the ceding wave. One or two of her crew sprang overboard and helped to prevent her again being dashed against the boards; and a number of spectators, forming a line with clasped hands, waded out into the surf and finally dragged the boat and crew safely in, when the latter hurried off to the nearest dwelling for dry clothes and food. The men who achieved this gallant rescue are all true sailors, and exhibited a courage and daring that is above all reward but hearty admiration.

THE WRECK OF THE DACOTAH.

We find the following in regard to this ill-fated vessel in the Commercial Advertiser of the 27th:

"We are indebted to Capt. E. P. Dorr, who visited the wreck on Monday, and remained during the night, for the following particulars:

This ill-fated vessel is supposed to have struck on Saturday night, at 9 o'clock. She was first discovered on Monday morning by Mr. Bennett, opposite his house one mile above Sturgeon Point. At 9 o'clock the night before, Mr. and Mrs Bennett and their son heard, amidst the howling of the tempest, the voice of some one hallooing, apparently in distress. They went out and searched in vain for some one, for an hour. The next morning Mrs. Bennett was so convinced that she heard some one hallooing in distress from the beach, that she sent her son to look, and he found the wreck. The vessel apparently broke up outside, by striking a reef, as one-half of the entire bottom was landed high and dry on the beach—all perfect The debris of the wreck and cargo are strewn for miles along the beach. The bodies of three men have been found, and are in charge of the coroner, Mr. Abner Dewey, of Evans Centre. Two of them have been identified as Bartholomew Maenams, deck hand, and Edward Kennedy, watchman. The life boat is on the beach, nearly perfect, and it may be that some one reached the shore alive in her, and perished before reaching the dwelling. An examination is taking place to discover if this is so. There is two feet of snow on the level at Evans Centre. Some portions of the wreck are hanging off in the lake, apparently hung by the machinery and anchors. Capt Thomas, of the Board of Underwriters, and captains Collins and Gaylord, were left in charge of the wreck and cargo by Capt. Dorr, and did all they could, in co-operation with the coroner, to recover the bodies and forward them to their friends It was a sad sight to see those bodies saved—frozen stark and stiff, with the red color of life still in their cheeks. Poor sailors! their last work is done. God help the poor bereaved ones left behind."

Disunion in the Young Men's Association.

The lecture season opened well in Milwaukee: the lecture of GEO. W. CURTIS, it seems, did not suit a certain anonymous Democrat; therefore we say the season opened well. Before this Democrat had spoken, we labored under the conviction that everybody was pleased, and this unnatural state of things alarmed us. We are glad this novel snarl has been made, as it makes things more as we expect to find them. The anonymous gentleman objects to Mr. CURTIS because he spoke "right out." The subject of "dishonesty" was made to fit too well, and there's the rub—so Anonymous calls upon the other snarlers who he thinks are to be found on the roll of membership to come out from among them, if this thing is repeated, and start another Young Men's Association, which shall hire Democratic lecturers exclusively. This is Secession, mildly drawn. Downright Disunion! And the News, with a fellow feeling, clutches at the idea, calls Mr. CURTIS an Abolitionist and intimates that when such men are allowed to express themselves freely before an intelligent audience, it is time that the Democratic members of the institution begin to strike for their rights! So we think—that is, that portion of them who cannot hear so much of Republicanism as is contained in free speech. Let us have a split at once. A free and independent Young Men's Association, conducted on free and independent principles, which shall examine all Lecturers before engaging them and see that they are all sound on the goose. It would be a good plan for the free and independent society to make out a platform and have an examining committee to ascertain whether the distinguished gentlemen use the word "dishonesty" or "corruption" in their lectures, and, if so, how many sentences removed from "Democracy;" and to have a schedule of such restrictions as the following:

You are not to say anything having a moral, religious or political bearing upon your audience.

You are to be as original and brilliant as you please without disturbing cherished notions, and you are, on no account, to twit on facts.

You are to avoid all allusion to JOHN BROWN, unless you consider him a traitor and an arch fiend.

You are to send your manuscript to the committee for examination, before appearing yourself.

Then we shall probably have YANKEE HIMself in Albany Hall, and STEPHEN A. might be induced to come out under such auspices, and Republicans and citizens generally would attend and listen to all their heresies with the best of humor, and the understanding that they had a moral right to say just what they pleased.

There is one thing, however, which would soon become apparent—the orthodox association would get all the talent, for it is as evident that the best lecturers in the country incline to the FREE side, as it is, that brilliancy and originality cannot flourish under a ban of bigotism or the restrictions of besotted politicians.

The one-idea man who makes up his mind before attending a lecture, exactly what the speaker shall say, and condemns him afterwards for not making his ideas tally with the one before him, is three hundred years behind the age, and would be the fitting president of the free and independent oyster bed he proposes to lay out.

THE LOST ON THE DACOTAH.—The names of the passengers and crew of the ill-fated Dacotah, as far as ascertained, were Snyder, Morton, Smith, Milton and Flagg, all sailors, and one Jared, (supposed to be the old cook of the "Home" in this city, known for many years to the frequenters of that resort "Dudley,") a resident of Milwaukee. The officers and crew were: W. S. Cross, captain; C. C. Klumph, 1st mate; Samuel Boyce, 1st engineer; Wm. G. Lee, 2d do; Anthony Kilkopne, fireman; James Sheridan, do; A. Benhedy, watchman; John Handrahan, porter; and the 2d mate and nine deck hands, whose names, owing to some changes which have recently been made, are not exactly known.

A MODEL MESSAGE.—The pagan Mayor of New York, FERNANDO WOOD, promulgates a proclamation to the people of that Mayor-ridden city concerning Thanksgiving day, the impiety and impertinence of which has startled the New Yorkers even. The original Mayor proceeds to say:—"That in his judgment the country, either in its political, commercial, or financial aspect, presents no feature for which we should be thankful."

Mr. WOOD probably had an eye to local and not national affairs when this was penned, in which case he was about right—for all the New Yorkers have to be thankful over during his Administration is the blessed prospect of its drawing to a speedy close.

IS IT A NUISANCE?—On those streets which have a sudden descent the boys have turned the sidewalks into long sliding grades, over which they ride with their sleds, making it very difficult for citizens to walk up the hill. On one of the streets that run from Wisconsin south to Michigan they recently resorted to a sprinkling of rain water at night to give an extra slip in the morning. Nobody will object to the boys enjoying themselves, but they ought to take the middle of the street for their fun. It is not very pleasant for ladies walking on Michigan street to be suddenly startled, if not knocked down, by a sled load darting out of a by street.

THE THANKSGIVING SERMON OF REV. J. L. CORNING, on the "Religion of Politics," will be published by STRICKLAND & Co., in pamphlet form. It will be ready next Thursday.

MILWAUKEE CHESS CLUB.—There will be a meeting of the Club at the Newhall House (gentlemen's parlor) on Saturday evening, Dec. 1. Chess players are invited to attend.

[Original.]

TO LITTLE BERTIE.

BY MRS. JULIA FORD.

Thou art happy, little Bertie,
Happy all the livelong day,
Warbling ever like the brooklet
Murmuring sweetly on its way;
Thy young life is full of gladness,
Like some angel sent below,
Thy song has ne'er a note of sadness,
Stranger yet to human woe.

Little angel, darling Bertie,
Oft to me the thought will come,
She must be a little fairy,
Wandered from her native home;
And a prayer upriseth for thee,
Though a tear and sigh will start,
For a life from sorrow free,
Ne'er can be my darling's part.

Life awaits thee, darling Bertie,
Scenes of joy and pleasure:
Life, with all its cares and toils,
Must come to thee, my treasure.
Even now, dear child, thy sorrow
Oft is told by thy warm tears;
But the sunshine of to-morrow
Scatters all thy baby fears.

Listen, darling, while I tell thee
Thou will learn in future years,
From a page, I sigh to tell thee,
Dark and wet with drooping tears.
Hopes and loves thou too will cherish,
But depart they, one by one,
As the evening dew drops perish
In the bright rays of the sun.

Oft thy little prayers are offered,
With a sweet and childish love;
Thou dost ask that He who suffered
Would'st look kindly from above;
Like Himself would deign to make thee,
Gentle, and like him so mild;
Let this spirit ever bear thee
Above all earthly strife, dear child,

The City Editors Giving Thanks.

On Thanksgiving Day, the city editors and reporters met at the Walker House, and sat down to a splendid dinner provided by Col. BENTLEY, the popular host of this now popular establishment. There were present several editors from the interior of the State, and a general good time obtained. Toasts were drank and responded to good humoredly. Sentiments flashed around the board, and some very pleasant vocal music was thrown in—not forgetting a solo by CHARLEY WRIGHT, of the News, to original words commencing—

"Dar I wish I was in the land of Dixie."

This was sung with variations, in a peculiarly rich and mellow voice, and was encored every time.

Our friends PORTER, of the Wisconsin, OTTERBOURG, of the Atlas, GODFREY, of the News, ROSS, of the Madison Patriot and others, made capital speeches. The fellow who was to read the poem flunked out—hadn't it written, but the rest got along just as well if not better. The lion and the lamb, and all the other members of the happy family, feeling and doing just as they darned pleased.

If we ever have the pleasure of eating another dinner, as is a dinner, we trust it will be under the roof of the Walker House, with just such a party.

POPULAR MUSIC.—H. N. Hempsted, of Milwaukee, who keeps the best music store in the West, sends us some attractive music for which he has our thanks. "The Glendy Burk," a capital negro melody, by Foster; "Down by the River Side," a ballad, by Maeder, "Garibaldi's Sicilian March," by Mr. Hempsted himself—a fine piece of martial music; and "Dixie's Land," which has so suddenly become famous. We would like to know where Dixie's Land is. From the fast that Gen. King encloses his compliments with this piece, we suspect that it is located somewhere up Salt River.—Green Bay Advocate.

If Col. ROBINSON, of the Green Bay Advocate, will visit these parts, we shall be happy to show him where "Dixie's Land is." According to the latest geographers, it is in close proximity to HEMPSTED'S Musical head-quarters—just across the way, in fact—where TANGEL MCCRAKEN dispenses the famous "Monumental Oysters" and CHET ALLEN provides the "trimmings"—Hence the well known chorus: "Oh, I wish I was in Dixie," &c., &c.

THE NEWS AND MR. SEGER.—What motive the News can have for persistently misrepresenting the facts in the case of Mr. J. A. SEGER, we are at a loss to imagine. The News not only denies, contrary to the truth, that Mr. SEGER was, and is a Democrat, but it falsely and impudently maintains that "he held office under Gen. RUFUS KING, when the latter was School Superintendent." We have already branded this statement as an utter falsehood. Mr. SEGER never held office, for one moment, under Gen. KING. Why the News should stick to this transparent and unnecessary fabrication, we cannot tell.

"A TRIBUTE TO KANE AND OTHER POEMS, BY GEORGE W. CHAPMAN."—This neat little volume, of 160 pages, from the press of RUDD & CARLETON, 130 Grand Street, N. Y. embodies a number of pieces from the graphic pen of our fellow-citizen, Mr. GEORGE W. CHAPMAN. The publishers have clothed these poems in an attractive dress, and they cannot but find favor with the reading public. The topics are various, but all are cleverly treated. The ring of the true metal is observable in many of the pieces. Mr CHAPMAN is a genuine poet, and his productions will take high rank in the literature of the country.

MR. WILSON'S LEG RE ON TUESDAY EVENING.—It will be perceived by reference to our advertising columns, that the lecture on "Sir WALTER SCOTT" comes next in the course before the Young Men's Association. It is rather a severe ordeal for a young debutante to succeed a practiced veteran like Mr. CURTIS—still we have no reason to doubt but what he will bear himself bravely in the trial. We may say, too, that the lecture committee are doing their part this year.—Surely, a dime and a half each, ($1 for the course) is a small consideration for the mental feasts they offer.

LECTURES ON SPIRITUALISM.—Mrs. J. W. CURRIER, from New York, a celebrated and popular speaker, will commence a course of lectures, at Good Templar's Hall, Bowman's Block, on Sunday, at 2 o'clock P. M. Admittance 10 cents, to defray expenses. The public are respectfully invited to attend. d1t

THEATRICAL COMPANY AT THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—We understand that arrangements are nearly perfected for a good Theatrical company at the Academy of Music, during the Winter months. The project is in excellent hands and will, we hope, prove successful.

A SENSIBLE FASHION.—Editors can no longer indulge in criticisms on the thinness of ladies' shoes—paper soles have had their day. The fashion at present runs to boots and double-soled buskins, comfortably heavy and water tight, doing away with murderous rubbers.

BEST'S BEER HALL.—Our old acquaintance, Mr. HENRY KRONGEN, the original "Ice man," has leased Best's Beer Hall, on Market Square, and takes possession next Monday. He invites his friends to come and see him on the occasion, and he promises them a Free Lunch and the best of "Book Beer."

Another Body Found.

SAUGATUCK, MICH., Nov. 22.

MAYOR OF MILWAUKEE:—I have just held an inquest on the body of a lady, on the beach of the Lake, supposed to be one from the Elgin. Said person is about 5 feet high, middling size, about 25 or 30 years old; has on hoop skirts—a piece of the dress is here enclosed; also two rings found on the fingers. The body was much gone by washing. We put the same into a good pine box and buried it under some poplar trees, a short distance from the beach.

Any one claiming said body can be shown the place where it is deposited, by calling at my office in Newark, Allegan county, Michigan. Yours, respectfully,

M. B. SPENCER, Justice of Peace.

Accompanying the above description are two gold rings and a sample of dress, which may be seen at the office of Mr. BECK, Chief of Police. On one of the rings appears the name of "CHARLES ELLISON;" the other is a small plain gold ring, apparently a wedding ring, which friends could easily recognize.

THE OAK CREEK MURDER.—The People's Press had nearly a column last night in reply to the SENTINEL in the excessive bail case. As a sample of the logic in the Press, we quote:

"The duty of the Judge in fixing bail is not to enquire into the circumstances of the accused, and shape the bail accordingly, but to require an amount of bail commensurate with the enormity of the crime, and safe keeping of the prisoner."

According to that, a certain sum would have to be fixed by law. There could be no "excessive bail." The rich man could always give bail, the poor man never could. It is only by taking into consideration "the circumstances of the accused" that the question of what is, and what is not excessive bail can be determined. A Court of Justice, in fixing bail, is always governed by "the circumstances of the accused."

THANKSGIVING SERMONS.—On Thursday Rev. WM. DELOSS LOVE, of the Spring street Congregational Church, delivered a sermon on "the jubilee and the judgment of 1860," from the following texts:

Then shalt thou cause the trumpet of the jubilee to sound.—Lev. 25:9

O house of David, thus saith the Lord; Execute judgment in the morning, and deliver him that is spoiled out of the hand of the oppressed, lest my fury go out like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.—Jer. 21:12

It was pronounced one of the most able and logical discourses ever listened to in Milwaukee.

The Rev. J. M. BUCHANAN, of the North Presbyterian Church, preached from the text: "In everything give thanks." We are sorry that our space will not permit us to give these sermons entire—and a mere synopsis would utterly fail doing them justice.

FENCING CLUB.—A fencing club has been organized in this city under the supervision of the famous little French Zouave, Major DEVILLIERS. A spacious and pleasant hall has been secured for the use of the club on Market street, a little north of Biddle, where the first regular meeting will be held on Monday evening at 7 1-2 o'clock. Gentlemen wishing to become members of the club are invited to be present on that occasion. Terms of membership $2 a month.—The young men of our city should improve this opportunity of acquiring so graceful and health-promoting an accomplishment as that of fencing. Major DEVILLIERS is known throughout the land as a thorough adept in the art.

MORE BODIES FROM THE WRECK OF THE PROP. DACOTAH.—Seven more bodies of those who perished in the wreck of the Prop. Dacotah have been found since our last published report. Upon two of these, which were found night before last, Coroner Dewey held an inquest yesterday, and informs us, by letter, of the result as follows.

"One was a colored man, well dressed, said to belong in Windsor, Canada, and went by the name of 'Bill.'"

"The other had on a black coat and vest and a red obecked shirt. On his left arm, letters 'M. L.,' wheel, cross, and flag; on right arm, letters 'M. D. B.' and female figure, letters 'P. L.' opposite."

Of the five bodies taken from the Lake yesterday morning, we have only the information that one has been recognized as that of the First Mate, Capt. Klumph.—Buffalo Express, Tuesday.

CHOICE STATIONERY.—Messrs. NOONAN & MCNAB, at their large Paper Warehouse on East Water street, a few doors north of the SENTINEL office, have just received the choicest assortment of Stationery we have seen in this city. It includes every variety of Letter and Note paper, and the very latest styles of Parisian Envelopes and fancy stationery. Some of the French note paper, in point of color and quality, cannot be excelled. We advise our lady readers and gentlemen who have love letters to write—as well as those engaged in more serious correspondence—to try some of their superior stock.

THE ORPHAN ASYLUM FESTIVAL AT ALBANY HALL.—Thanksgiving Day, which is somewhat of a family festival, interfered considerably with the Orphan Asylum Fair at Albany Hall. It will be continued, therefore, during this day and evening. Many very desirable articles of use or ornament, will be disposed of at auction. The charity is one which commends itself to all. We hope that our citizens generally will call in at Albany Hall to-day or to-night, and contribute what they can spare to the treasury of St. Rosa's Asylum.

THE MEMBERS of the "Young Men's Lyceum," of Milwaukee, are requested to meet this (Saturday) evening, at 7 1-2 o'clock, at Good Templar's Hall, in Bowman's Block.

The following resolution will be discussed at their meeting this evening:

Resolved, That any State in the Union has a right peaceably to secede therefrom.

All are invited to attend.

W. A. COLLINS, Sec'y.

LAW LIBRARY.—The members of our Milwaukee Bar, subscribers of the "Law Library Association," are requested to attend an adjourned meeting, of Mr. H. L. PALMER, Mitchell's Block, at 10 o'clock, this, (Saturday,) morning.

ST. ANDREW'S DINNER.—The St. Andrew's Society sat down to a splendid dinner last evening at the Newhall House.—The intellectual programme was as diversified and rich as the edible. Our report is unavoidably laid over.

PERSONAL.—ROSS, of the Madison Patriot, and FITCH, of the Fox Lake Gazette, have been in town for a couple of days. They were properly cared for, and sent on their way rejoicing.

WEATHER.—There was every appearance of another snow storm last evening. Stray flakes were falling as we went to press—but it was rather cold.

DANCING PARTY.—L. W. VIZAY'S annual party comes off to-night at the Republican House. The pupils of Mr. VIZAY will afford a pleasant entertainment.

LIGHT GUARD SOCIABLE.—The next sociable of the Light Guards takes place at the Armory on Wednesday, Dec. 5th.

THE QUACKS CONFOUNDED.—Unskillful men are vainly striving to impose on the community their weak, obnoxious compounds, as good, wholesome Saleratus; while JAMES PYLE, with his pure Dietetic, furnishes the market with a good and wholesome articles. Depot 345 Washington street, New York. Sold by grocers everywhere.

THERE IS NOTHING more essential to a traveler's complete outfit, than one or more bottles of Guernsey's Balm. It is like taking the family physician with you on your journey.

For sale by J. M. ALLCOTT, opposite the SENTINEL Office.

FOUND.—A ring, which will be returned to the owner on his proving property and paying advertising expenses.

COUGHS.—THE SUDDEN CHANGES of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL, and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience has proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. DAILY, TRI-WEEKLY & WEEKLY

RUFUS KING, EDITOR.

SATURDAY MORNING, DEC. 1, 1860.

A Compromise Proposed.

The Washington Constitution, the funny organ of the Federal Administration, has hit upon a decidedly original plan for quieting the excitement at the South and inducing the "Secessionists" to forego their treasonable purposes. Here it is:

Another and a more decisive way is open to Messrs Lincoln and Hamlin. By one bold stroke may they remove the difficulties and avert the danger. Let them resign their positions. Let them abandon their title to the office with which their names are associated. Let them formally withdraw their pretensions from the college of electors. The step will not be pleasant, we confess. No one likes to have the cup of joy dashed from his lips. But, in the present case, circumstances will mitigate the mortification; for since Mr. Lincoln cannot, in all likelihood, be more than the President of a broken Union, comparatively little Philosophy may reconcile him to the sacrifice. He is simply called upon to give up gracefully what he cannot keep peacefully or usefully. The Chicago interview will show whether this self-denial is equal to the occasion. We shall anxiously await the revelation of the course resolved upon by Mr. Lincoln and his official partner. Will the telegraph for once talk sensibly?

As the Constitution sets such an excellent example of "talking sensibly," it is to be hoped that the "telegraph" will, "for once," follow suit. But we submit that the plan of the Constitution to settle existing difficulties is but a partial one, after all. It gets rid of Messrs. LINCOLN and HAMLIN, but does not suggest the names of two other gentlemen, who will be any more acceptable to the South and to the Administration. Why not indicate the persons for whom the Electoral Colleges ought to vote? Say the "old Public Functionary," for instance, as President; and Mr. YANCEY, Mr. TOOMBS or Mr. JEFFERSON DAVIS, for Vice President. That would fill out the programme, and though the North might not relish the entertainment, it would be eminently satisfactory to the Constitution, and surely that organ, after its herculean labors to save the country and serve the Democratic party, is entitled to be gratified.

Another "Grievance" of the "Secessionists."

The following resolution, adopted at a recent "Fire-eaters'" meeting in Scriven Co., Georgia, illustrates the sort of arguments now relied upon to exasperate the people of the South and induce them to break the fraternal bonds which connect them with the North:

Resolved, That by the laws of Georgia, Hannibal Hamlin is a negro, (for it has been published and has not been denied, that he has over one-eighth of negro blood in his veins) and although the perjured villain is a fit subject to represent the disgraced and contaminated State of Maine in the National Legislature, according to the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the Dred Scott case, he is not a citizen, and consequently is ineligible to hold any office, and his inauguration as Vice President should not be allowed.

We believe that Mr. RHETT, of South Carolina, is entitled to the unenviable distinction of having coined and first circulated this base falsehood. Mr. HAMLIN has been for many years in public life, and has always enjoyed the respect and confidence of his colleagues and associates. As a Democratic Senator from Maine he occupied a leading position and exercised great influence in the United States Senate. We heard no whisper then, about the "negro blood" in his veins. It is only since he became the candidate of the Republican Party, for the Vice Presidency, that Sham Democracy discovered this flaw in his pedigree.

The Last Kansas "Outrage."

The Cincinnati Gazette of the 28th ult., says, in regard to the latest advices from Kansas, "that Fort Scott was not burned; that Paris was not sacked; that the business of the Land Office was not interrupted, and that the circumstances did not justify the the flight of Judge WILLIAMS. MONTGOMERY had forty-three men with him at last accounts. Gen. HARNEY, therefore, will be able to "conquer a peace" without much difficulty."

The St. Louis Republican of the same date intimates that the runaway Judge, who brought the false intelligence of the MONTGOMERY raid, purposely exaggerated the story, to excuse his own cowardice. The first company of "Minute Men," who weren't in pursuit of MONTGOMERY and his band, found that the nearer they got to Fort Scott—the alleged scene of the outrages—the less they heard about any trouble—so so they turned about and marched home again. The St. Louis Battalion, four or five hundred strong, who went off to "the wars," Tuesday, will hardly see any service.

REPORTED RESIGNATION OF JUDGE TANEY.—The New York Herald has a report that Judge TANEY has resigned his position as Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, and says it is rumored that Judge BLACK, at present Attorney-General, will be appointed by Mr. BUCHANAN to succeed him.

Some of the New York papers contradict and others confirm this story. If it is not yet true, it is very likely to come so before Mr. BUCHANAN leaves the White House.—Mr. TANEY's increasing infirmities and advanced age have, two years past, almost incapacitated him for the discharge of his judicial functions; but the secret of his resignation at this time, is doubtless to be found in the result of the Presidential election and the natural desire of Mr. BUCHANAN to bestow a parting reward upon his Attorney-General, BLACK, who has borne the blunt of the administration and broken down, politically, under the heavy load.

ANOTHER VOICE AGAINST "SECRESSION."—HERSCHEL V. JOHNSON, of Georgia, the Douglas candidate for Vice President, joins A. H. STEVENS on the anti-disunion platform. He writes a letter dated Milledgeville, Nov. 16, in reply to a note from twenty-four members of the Legislature, in which the grievances of the South are calmly considered, and the expediency of secession emphatically denied. Mr. JOHNSON declares that the election of LINCOLN is not sufficient cause for secession.

A WISCONSIN MAN IN THE CALIFORNIA SENATE.—One of the two State Senators just elected in San Francisco, is Mr. JAMES McM. SHAFTER, formerly of Sheboygan, in this State, and Speaker of the Assembly during one session. His brother, W. N SHAFTER, still resides at Sheboygan and as a member of the Legislature, winter before last. They are both, of course, staunch Republicans.

ILLINOS—OFFICIAL.—The Chicago papers of Thursday contain the vote of Illinois, as officially declared. The returns of two counties were thrown out for non-compliance with the election laws. Lincoln's plurality over Douglas, including the counties thrown out, is 11,986, and his majority over all 4,—686. Lincoln's official plurality, however, is 12,902, and his official majority 5,644.

THE NEW PAPER AT WASHINGTON.—It is understood that no newspaper at the seat of Government, no matter under what auspices it may be started, will have any authority or privilege to speak for Mr. LINCOLN or the incoming Administration. Organship is about played out.

ST. LOUIS AND CHARLESTON BANKS SUSPENDED.—The St. Louis Banks, with the exception of the Exchange bank, suspended specie payments on the 28th of November. The Charleston Banks, which were going to hold on until they broke New York, went to the wall on the same day.

JAMES GUTHRIE FOR THE UNION.—Hon. JAMES GUTHRIE spoke at a Union meeting in Louisville, Ky., on Monday night. He took strong ground in favor of the Union, and against the secessionists of the South.

The Troubles in Kansas.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

ST. LOUIS, MO., Nov. 25, 1860.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Probably ere this the telegraph has furnished you with the details of the MONTGOMERY raid, but perhaps a few words from one who is near the dread conflict may not come amiss. Great excitement exists here amongst all classes and parties. Strong language is used, and this morning's issue of the Republican strives, in a long and labored article, to lay all the blame on the Republican party. Of course all sensible men must see the fallacy of such arguments at once. They are groundless, and have no existence, save in the crazed brains of disappointed pot-house politicians. MONTGOMERY openly declares that he is an Abolitionist, and has neither aid from, or sympathy with the Republicans; and the foul murder of LESTER D. MOORE, a prominent Republican, by his lieutenant acting under his orders, is sufficient proof of the truth of his assertion.

As yet, he has not invaded Missouri, but Governor STEWART fearing he may appear on the borders, has taken the precaution of ordering out the militia and stationing them in the vicinity of the apprehended attack. The St. Louis regiment, 700 strong, took an extra train this noon for the seat of war. They were very enthusiastic, and promise to bring back MONTGOMERY's scalp as a trophy of their prowess. They shed more tears on their departure than they will blood, before their return, unless they visit the hen roosts of southern Missouri with dire vengeance. MONTGOMERY has 150 men well mounted, and armed with a SHARPE's rifle, two navy revolvers, sabre and bowie-knife, making them the best equipped body of men ever seen in this country. It is not likely they will sit quietly down and be taken by infantry. General HARNEY, with a few hundred dragoons, will soon settle the affair. Indeed, the calling out of militia was needless, and will only serve to increase the bitter feelings which the Secessionists have against the North. The first notice of the outbreak came from Judge WILLIAMS, a creature of the Lecompton Administration, and a man of a romantic, bombastic turn of mind, not very reliable, and whose interests it would serve by appearing in the light of a martyr. Many weak minds are filled with dire forebodings, and would-be prophets say this is but the beginning of the end. One thing is certain: it will tend to diminish the number of slaves in this State; they are driven into the slave pens in great numbers, and every loss for the South hastens the exodus of the ebony skins. Several counties in the State have already held meetings, and warned all who voted for LINCOLN to vamoose. Perhaps the six hundred Secessionists of St. Louis will give us our walking papers; we would like to see them try it on. Moping your readers will not believe more than half of the sensation despatches,

I remain respectfully,

E. L. D.

Letter from Western New York.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

WESTERN NEW YORK, NOV. 26, '60.

DEAR SENTINEL:—The quiet succeeding the boisterous turmoil of the exciting election, like the lull after a storm, is the more marked as the previous contest was animated. The Empire State, having been the great battle ground, presented, for a few weeks prior to the election, scenes of absorbing interest. But the battle is over; the extinguished torches are thrust into obscure garrets; the caps and capes are lain aside; and the stumper's "occupation's gone."

The past season in this section of the country has been unusually favorable to agricultural pursuits. Nearly all crops have been abundant. It is stated that the yield of wheat per acre is greater than in any previous year since 1816, but the area sowed was less than usual.

The first snow fell on the 20th inst., and on the 24th the weather became severely cold, with a fall of snow decidedly wintry.

In traveling over this State on the N. Y. Central Road—that splendid thoroughfare which seemed never so perfect and so admirable as now—one cannot fail to notice the neatness which characterizes the villages on the line of the route. The white cottages are so bright and cheerful, the frequent elegant villas are so well kept up, and the yards and grounds are seen in such nice condition, that the passer-by is constrained to believe their possessors persons of competence, taste and leisure. And, indeed, Western New York is a region of large resources, and an excellent population.

Speculation is rife in all the East respecting the new state of things in representation which will result from the census and apportionment thereupon made. The population of one or two States, it seems, has fallen off, while the great, growing, crescent North-West has, at one stride, obtained political power. What a smart chance for rising men is afforded by giving Wisconsin, for example, twice as many Congressmen as heretofore! But if the number were quadrupled, doubtless plenty of fit candidates would spring up. The faith of politicians in their own capacity can scarcely be likened to a grain of mustard seed!

As the census returns are coming in, it may be interesting to refer to Senator SEWARD's horoscope of the population of the Union.—He said in 1850:

Well-established calculations in political arithmetic enable us to say that the aggregate population of the nation now is 23,000,000
That 10 years hence it will be 30,000,000
That 20 years hence it will be 38,000,000
That 30 years hence it will be 50,000,000
That 40 years hence it will be 60,000,000
That 50 years hence it will be 80,000,000
That 100 years hence, that is, in the year 1850, it will be 200,000,000

Equal to nearly one fourth of the present aggregate population of the globe, and double the population of Europe at the time of the discovery of America.

It may well be doubted whether the above estimate is not below the truth. It will, at all events, be interesting to compare it with the facts, as the decades roll around.

The lecture season appears to have already commenced. The lists of speakers, published by the associations in this quarter, contain few new names. But the popularity of this species of entertainment is well maintained. Yours, BADGER.

OCONTO COUNTY—THE LUMBERING INTEREST.—A correspondent of the Oconto Pioneer, after stating that the population of Oconto, by the U. S. Census, was 3598 on the 1st of June last, publishes the additional statistics:

"There is at this time an investment in this county by the lumber manufacturers of one million, four hundred thousand dollars, yielding an annual product of half a million of dollars, which is but about one half of what the mills have a capacity to cut, if run night and day. There is at this time three hundred and twenty-one saws in the mills of this county; (one hundred and six of which are at Stiles,) and notwithstanding the hard times this year, there has been an increase of machinery, preparatory to another year's business; such as door, sash and blind factories, planing mill, &c. The latter is put up by Ogden & Co, of Peshtigo, under the superintendence of John G. Emery, who also built their extensive mills for sawing lumber, lath, pickets &c, and is unquestionably one of the model establishments of these United States, and one of the largest capacity.

All this manufacture of lumber, and preparation to manufacture lumber in this county, is about one half of what is done on the Bay shore, and further, all this is but an inconsiderable part of the entire lumber business of North Wisconsin. Yet this immense work of productive industry in Northern Wisconsin seems to be entirely overlooked in departments; little honored and badly protected. If you will look at the Great Seal of our State, you will find the impress of the agriculturist, the miner, and other branches of industry; but the impress of the lumberman, with his pick, hand spike, axe, saw and other implements for lumbering is not there. They recognize no such trade, and seem to know no North. It is to be hoped that the next Legislature will take into consideration that we have a North, rich in its forests, mines and agriculture, and take measures to open up and develope the resources of the North, by such thoroughfares as will best effect that object.

J. C. H.

Marinette, Nov. 20th, 1860.

The State Canvass—Twenty-One Thousand Republican Majority.

The State Canvassers met in the office of the Secretary of State this afternoon to canvass the returns of the late election. All the returns were in, Winnebago, Kewaunee and Chippewa having arrived by last night's mail. What is a little remarkable and quite unprecedented in the history of the State, the returns were also in proper form, the consequence, doubtless, of the superior care taken by our Republican State officers in forwarding blanks and clear instructions to the county clerks.

The following table shows the full returns by counties of the vote on Lincoln and Douglas electors, and on members of Congress, together with the footings of the official canvass:

Breckinridge's entire vote in the State is 883; Bell's vote is 161. In La Pointe county, Breckinridge beats Douglas, receiving 26 votes to four for Douglas.

Total vote of the State 155,130
Lincoln's majority over Douglas 21,089
Lincoln's majority over all 20,010

In 1856 the total vote of the State was 119,512; Fremont's majority over all, 12,655. Last year the total vote was 123,016, GOV. Randall's majority being 3,958. Since last fall, the increase in the number of votes in the State has been very slight. We have lost by emigration to Pike's Peak and other Western territories nearly, if not quite as many as we have gained. The returns therefore indicate that in this State a reserve corps of voters, numbering some 20,000 men, who did not vote last year, went to the polls and deposited their ballots at the recent election, and that a large proportion of this usually non-voting class are Republicans when they vote.—State Journal.

Mayor Wood on Thanksgiving.

From the N. Y. Evening Post.

Mr. Fernando Wood is the first public man in our history who has refused to worship God because he has lost an election. His proclamation, therefore, being unique in its kind, deserves to be printed in the most conspicuous place. But it is not so much a proclamation as a contra-proclamation, which reads as if the Mayor imagined that he could circumvent the designs of the Court of Heaven, as he has sometimes circumvented the designs of good people in interior jurisdictions. Here are the strange words:

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
NEW YORK, Nov. 24, 1860.

"In accordance with custom and the proclamation of the Governor of the State, it becomes my duty as Mayor to recommend to the people of this city the observance of Thursday, the 29th inst., as a day of 'thanksgiving and prayer.'

"Whilst, in my judgment, the country, either in its political, commercial and financial aspect, presents no features for which we should be thankful, we are yet called upon by every consideration of self-preservation to offer up to the Father of all mercies devout and fervent prayer for his interposition and preservation from the impending evils which threaten our institutions and the material interests of the people.

"Therefore, acknowledging our dependence on Almighty God, and deeply sensible of our unworthiness, let the day set apart as Thanksgiving be observed by the people of this city as one of humiliation and supplication, not omitting in our prayers the expression of the hope that those who have, in violation of the federal compact, unpatriotically and unwisely indicted these injuries upon us may be the only sufferers by their own wickedness and folly.

"Given under my hand and seal, the day and year aforesaid.

FERNANDO WOOD, Mayor.

Mr. Wood knows of nothing for which the people of this country should be thankful to Almighty God; he sees nothing in the fact of a continued national existence for seventy years under circumstances of honor, prosperity and glory; nothing in the peaceful industry which has provided comfortable homes for so many millions of people; nothing in those free institutions which have opened an asylum to the oppressed nations of the earth; nothing in the abundant harvests of the past year which have made the civilized world our debtors; and nothing in the sublime outburst in the spirit of humanity and freedom which has put an end to the encroachments of almost the only great social evil which our communities have to deplore. All that Mr. Wood sees is the overthrow of his party, and in a tone of impiety that might be awful if it were not ludicrous, he flings these blessed gifts of God back in to his face, saying, What have we to do with Thee! His malice is at once blasphemous and impotent.

But while our Mayor refuses to be thankful, to any extent, he is willing to pay to a limited, extent. Dying men and drunken men are both said to be apt at this resort.—What they can do nothing else, they pray. In their extremities they turn to the Lord, whom they have despised in the hour of success. They hope to recover by the importunate supplication the good which their bad conduct had forfeited, Unable to maintain the political ascendancy of his friends at the polls, the Mayor would try the efficacy at the altar; but he forgets the injunction that the prayers of the righteous alone avail, and that mercy is vouchsafed only to the penitent.—So long as he shall bring an obdurate heart to his devotions, the fire will not glow. So long as he refuses to acknowledge the goodness of Providence, his petitions will be a mockery. To insult the booty of his Maker in one breath, and to ask His interposition in another, is not the way to gain divine favor. "These people," it will be answered, "draw near me with their lips, while their hearts are far from me." Mr. Wood ought to read his Bible; he seems ignorant of the very rudiments of piety; and before penning another proclamation, let him take advantage of a few lessons in Dr. Tyng's excellent Sunday School.

NOT SORRY A BIT.—The New York Tribune, notwithstanding the woes which are clustering thick about us, is so abominably hard-hearted, that it won't be sorry over the election of Lincoln. It says:

"We are not a bit sorry for Lincoln's success—on the contrary, we like it hugely; and the antics of the chivalry only makes us feel gladder and gladder and gladder that they have ceased to be our rulers. And let them nullify, secede, from a new Southern republic, or do what they will, we shall still be glad that Lincoln is elected.

Nor do we promise to explain, or qualify, or ask pardon for our late triumph. We went in to elect Lincoln, and that is the simple and brief explanation of our vote.

When we were beaten four year since, none of the victors thought of soothing or consoling us. None of them even proposed to hold meetings and implore us to stay in the Union. Nobody proposed a repeal of the atrocious laws whereby Northern seamen are imprisoned in Southern ports for the crime of being black. On the contrary, the chivalry made themselves merry over Sumner's broken head, the "shrieks" of Kansas, and other such funny things. The victors exulted as much as they saw fit, and no one murmured, "Why do ye so?" We held our peace and bided our time, and we advise the chivalry to profit by our example.

They may, while still smarting under the pang of defeat, devise a course which seems more heroic, but the quietest way is the best.

The country would have never realized the magnitude and intrinsic durability of the late Republican triumph, had not the firewaters emphasized it by proclaiming their stern resolve to break up the Union in consequence. And here is our answer to those who assail the Republican as a timid, purposeless, half way party, and its principles of no account. It is very clear that the chivalry do not share this opinion."

Another Cure.

WAUMADEE, Minn., April 15, 1857.

MESSRS. B. PAGE, JR. & CO.—GENTLEMEN:—During the past seven years I have suffered from all the ills incident to a weakness of the digestive organs. At times—being seized with an extreme loathing of food—I have not tasted nourishment for days; and again, when an appetite partially returned, the stomach was unable to retain what was eaten. At the suggestion of a friend, who had received much benefit, in a similar case from your Holland Bitters, I procured a bottle, and before I had taken half of it, experienced much relief; and now, after having continued its use for a short time, enjoy excellent health.

Yours, &c., J. MASTER.

THE NEW AMERICAN WATCH!
Made at Waltham, Mass.

IN ORDER TO MEET THE REQUIREMENTS of gentlemen who prefer a thinner Watch than those usually made by us, we have lately issued a new style of Watch on the three-quarter plate model, especially designed for this purpose.

In establishing this new series, it has also been our design to produce a Watch in every way superior to the best and highest priced products of the most reputable of English and Swiss manufacturers; and no labor or expense has been spared to this end.

In all respects of fine and durable material, of external and internal finish, of accurate compensation and adjustment, of mathematically just proportions, and of practical results, our new three-quarter plate Watch challenges comparison with any in the world.

The following named gentlemen may be referred to in relation to these Watches:

Hon. Hannibal Hamlin, Me.,	John G. Saxe, Vermont.
N. P. Willis, New York,	Hon. N. P. Banks, Mass.
Horace Greeley,	Frank Leslie,
Cyrus W. Field, New York,	Wm. H. Cary, N. York,
Paul Morphy, New Orleans,	Norman Ward, Wis.
Dr. J. Marion Sims,	Prof. Bartlett, West Pt.
Lieut. H. A. Wise, U.S.N.,	Col. W. J. Hardee, U.S.A.
S. I. Prime, D.D., Wh't Pl's,	Wilson G. Hunt, N. York,
Gen. G. P. Morris, N. York,	Peter Cooper, N. York.

CAUTION.—As our Watch is now extensively counterfeited by foreign manufacturers, we have to inform the public that no watch is of our production which is unaccompanied by a certificate of genuineness, bearing the number of the watch, and signed by our Treasurer, E. M. Hobbins, or by our predecessors, Appleton, Tracy & Co.

As these watches are for sale by jewelers generally throughout the Union, the American Watch Company do not solicit orders for single watches.

INFLAMMATIONS.

N. BINGHAM, A CELEBRATED PHYSICIAN of Utica, N. Y., says—"I have treated cases of Inflammation of the Brain, Inflammation of the Lungs, Inflammation of the Bowels and Kidneys, Inflammatory Rheumatism, Child Bed Fever, with Dr. Trask's Magnetic Ointment with perfect success, even when all internal remedies have failed; also cases of Croup, Scarlet Fever, Canker and Ulcerated Throat and Lungs with like success. In the Epidemic known as the Putrid Erysipelas by which so many valuable lives were lost I tested it frequently and it never failed of effecting a speedy and certain cure. In cases of Burns, Sprains, Bruises, Frozen Limbs, Chilblains, &c., it cures like a charm. No Physician or family will be without this medicine after becoming acquainted with its power to cure."

Sore Lips, Chapped Hands and Chilblains, are completely cured by two or three applications of the Magnetic Ointment.

THESE POPULAR BITTERS POSSESS all the nourishing and invigorating properties of PURE OLD BOURBON WHISKEY, and are considered the most efficacious TONIC and STIMULANT, as well as the most agreeable STOMACHIC ever offered the public. As a TONIC for the DEBILITATED Ladies, convalescent invalids, and all weakly people, they cannot be surpassed; in all cases of WEAKness or DEBILITY, they will give immediate relief, and impart a strong and healthy tone to the system. A trial will establish their merits over all other TONIC BITTERS. For DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS DISEASES AND LIVER COMPLAINTS, they are an invaluable remedy; and are a certain preventive of CHILLS AND FEVER.

AS A PREVENTIVE OF CHILLS AND FE

TELEGRAPH!

REPORTED BY THE N. Y. ASSOCIATED PRESS FOR THE DAILY SENTINEL.

Matters at the South.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 29—9 P. M.

The meeting of Bank Directors this morning agreed to suspend immediately.

It is deemed probable that Mr. Yancey will be appointed by the Alabama Legislature commissioned to attend the South Carolina Convention. It is now considered certain here that the ordinance of Secession will be passed either on the 17th or 18th of December. Our Representatives are leaving for Washington.

Ordnance and ammunition have lately been landed from a schooner at Fort Moultrie. Some of the officers say that now the fort is almost impregnable.

A despatch to the Herald from Washington says the Navy Department has received despatches from flag officer Pendergrast, with dates from Vera Cruz to November 21. Mr. McLane was at Jalapa.

The robbery of the British Legation, which was in charge at the time of the Spanish Minister, is confirmed.

The health of the officers and crew of the squadron is good. The St Louis had arrived at Vera Cruz. The Pawnee is on her way home, and will go into Philadelphia. The Cabinet held a meeting yesterday.

It is rumored that the Northern members were averse to Mr. Buchanan discussing the question of secession in the message, they deeming it advisable to wait until a formal declaration had been made by the seceding States, when the subject could be treated in a special message.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 29.

The remaining four banks have suspended specie payment.

The steamship Cahawba takes the place of the Isabel and leaves on Friday for Havana.

MILLEDGVILLE, Nov. 19.

A bill has been introduced in the House prohibiting the levying of any executions from the courts of the U. S on the property of the citizens of Georgia, prior to Dec. 1861. All sales under such process to be void. A debate took place in the House on the bill to protect the rights of citizens of Georgia.—An amendment was offered to extend the provisions of the bill to every State, which voted for Lincoln, which was agreed to.

Mr. McDonald opposed the bill and amendment, expressing warm Union sentiments, and proposed an amendment fining any Georgian $2,000 who sells a bale of cotton or barrel of apples to any person north of Mason and Dixon's line.

Mr. McDonald's amendment caused a commotion, and dissuion and conservative sentiments were uttered.

The bill was made the special order for to-morrow, when an exciting discussion is anticipated. The disunionists oppose and the conservatives favor it. It is still thought the Governor will veto it.

Vote of Minnesota.

[St. Paul, Nov. 30—9 P. M.

The official vote of Minnesota complete: Lincoln, 22,283; Douglas, 11,898; Breckinride 770; Bell, 44; scattering 18. Total 35,613.

AUGUSTA, Nov. 29.

A grand demonstration is announced to come of here Friday afternoon. A flag is to be suspended across the Savannah River, bearing the coat of arms of South Carolina and Georgia. A large attendance is expected.

LATEST NEWS!

BY LAST NIGHT'S REPORT

Washington Matters.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30—3 P. M.

The Times' correspondent says Hon. John Sherman, chairman of the committee on Ways and Means, intends to put through the appropriation bills at the earliest moment of the session, in order to allow Congress during the short session to discuss and settle the sectional difficulties which present themselves. He is expected here on Saturday.

Hon. Green Adams, of Kentucky, says his State may be counted on, also Tennessee, for the Federal Union at all times, until the rights of the States are actually invaded.

NEW YORK, Nov. 30—9 P. M.

The Commercial's Washington letter says advices from St. Petersburg give reason to believe that Minister Appleton has obtained payment of the celebrated Perkin's claim against the Russian Government, amounting to $385,000 for the non-compliance with the contract for smuggling arms and ammunition during the Crimean war.

A Paris letter of Nov. 8th says deplorable events are probably taking place in Syria.—That Abdel Kader had advised the christians to quit the country.

A Washington despatch to the Commercial, says that the President insists that the Federal laws must be observed, and he will maintain them at all hazards. He expresses the earnest hope that the South will not provoke collision. He will also emphatically declare that his duty to the country forbids the idea of his permitting the secessionists to take possession of the Federal forts, or withhold Federal revenue. The President had received information that the ordinance for South Carolina's secession is prepared, and will be adopted Dec. 18. The President expresses the desire that no collision may occur. He anticipates very great danger that it will come.

COMMERCIAL.

MONETARY.

FRIDAY P. M., Nov. 30, 1860.

The money market continues close, and business in the produce and pork markets quite stagnant, partially owing to the scarcity of currency. Exchange on the East is nominally 5 ₩ cent. premium, but our merchants are generally making their own exchange by shipping flour. Illinois currency passes amongst our merchants at par, although the banks and brokers charge a discount of 2½@3 ₩ cent. on it. The bills of the rejected banks are bought at 50 cents on the dollar. It will be seen by an article below, from the Cincinnati Gazette, that Illinois and Wisconsin currency has advanced 5 ₩ cent. at Cincinnati, the discount being now 5 ₩ cent.

SUSPENSION OF THE MISSOURI BANKS.

The telegraph has already advised our readers of the formal suspension of the Missouri banks. This action has made no difference at all in the value of their notes in the general money markets. The reason is the banks virtually suspended over a week ago, and their issues depreciated accordingly. For some time past it has been almost impossible to buy gold or exchange in Missouri for the currency of that State, even at 5 ₩ cent. premium. When this is the case, banks do not redeem their issues in specie, no matter what they may claim. Under the suspension exchange will be plentier and lower, and money, such as it is, easier at St. Louis than when the banks were compelled to strain themselves to keep up appearances.—Things will get along very well until financial affairs calm down throughout the North, and the banks called upon to resume. Then the strength of the institutions will be tested, and the public will know whether all the banks of that State are sound, with a bona fide basis. There have been serious doubts upon this point, dating back almost to the organization of the banks, as to several of the institutions.

In reference to the suspension, the St. Louis Democrat says:

We indulge in the hope and belief that under a suspension of specie payment our Banks can ship to New York two or three millions of coin, thereby not only furnishing exchange to that extent, but greatly encouraging the New York Banks (so nobly struggling against suspension on their part) and giving them a basis for so much additional legitimate expansion as to warrant, and no doubt cause them to assist our Banks, and through them our community, by discounts to at least two or three more millions of dollars.

Under a suspension of specie payments, our Banks can, moreover, use every dollar of their bank notes in the liberal, and yet discreet use of them in Bills of Exchange, based on the movement of crops, pork, bacon, tobacco, hemp, etc., which, while subsequently furnishing a basis of redemption for their notes so issued, would, in the meantime, keep the wheels of commerce going, keep up our manufacturing establishments, and thereby keep in employment thousands of our mechanics and working men, who otherwise, on the eve of a severe winter season, would, with their families, likely be subject to all the hardships which want, nay starvation, might impose.

Nor can we conceal or ourselves the probability of another benefit to be derived from a bank system under the peculiar circumstances in which we and ourselves. The Legislature which passed our bank law, no doubt believing to enact a beneficial law, has, as well as the people, since had occasion to find how many defects, omissions and errors it has evinced. As above stated, it was never contemplated that our people should be burdened with heavy discounts on bank notes, or heavy premiums on exchange. Names do not change facts. Heavy discounts and premiums mean "to keep bank alive." There can be little, if any, doubt that while a suspension of specie payment causes a forfeiture of bank charters, that our Legislature, about to convene, will, under existing circumstances, exercise the power conferred with justice, will revive bank charters, but on such terms as will prove just and salutary, both to the people and to the banks.

On the whole, while we wish it distinctly understood that we are only in favor of specie paying banks, we yet are willing to pay deference to what appears to be the general wish of the community, and to see, (again we say under existing circumstances) the experiment of bank suspension.

Our banks, by their do-nothing policy of late, have demonstrated that a change is required, and if such a change should not prove for the better, it certainly cannot be for the worse.

The experiment, under existing circumstances, may lead to salutary changes, and we will not, therefore, withhold our best wishes for its success.

THE BANKS OF INDIANA.

The Indianapolis Sentinel congratulates its readers that Indiana is in a most excellent condition for the present crisis. Her people were never more prosperous. The crops the past season were abundant, and excellent prices have been obtained for what has been sold. The banks of the State, chartered and stock, are far stronger than in 1857, when they maintained specie payments during the revulsion of that year. The Bank of the State has a large surplus capital, with abundance of available resources to protect her circulation and indebtedness. We have, says the Sentinel, "every confidence, if the suspension of specie payments should even become general, that our banks will maintain their credit unimpaired, and at the same time aid in moving our products to market."

The annual statement of the Auditor of State, showing the present condition of the Free Banks of Indiana, presents the following exhibit as to their circulation and securities:

Indiana Stock Banks.

We have in this State eighteen independent Stock Banks of issue in active operation, with a circulation of $1,174,889
There are four Stock Banks only recently starting, their circulation, secured by stocks, amounting to 26,462

Total circulation $1,196,351

These issues are secured by the following stocks deposited with the Treasurer of State:

MONEY MATTERS AT CHICAGO.

The Tribune of yesterday says:

The money market has been dull and quiet during the day in all departments. Exchange is still sold at ¼ per cent premium, and buying rates are about 65¾@65¾. The banks do not like to pay over ½ per cent, and it is by no means certain how long the high rates can continue. There never was a time when our most shrewdest operators were more at fault as to the future. As the panic, certainly in its most serious aspects, came on with apparently little reason, so it may end at any time, and for reasons equally trivial and unexpected. One thing is certain: In all the elements that constitute the solid wealth of a nation, the country never stood more unshaken. Values at the West may be inflated by our vicious currency system, but they are not sufficiently so to produce any serious and long continued financial troubles. As to the political horizon, we still think the optimists are the threatened storm will soon blow over and we shall have a "great calm." Operators, however, prefer very naturally to wait and see the clear blue sky before they make any considerable investments. We learn that the packers are still pursuing the same policy.

Gold is still dull, under the high rates. Currency passes as usual for everything but exchange, and hence few care for coin. We quote it nominal at 5@6 per cent, buying; selling at 7@8. The lower figure is the more usual.

REJECTED CURRENCY.—The brokers are still buying the Illinois rejected banks at 80 cents on the dollar.—Sales few, comparatively. Merchants generally prefer to hold it rather then to sell at present rates.

MONEY MATTERS AT CINCINNATI — WESTERN CURRENCY ADVANCING.

The Cincinnati Gazette of Thursday morning has the following review of money affairs there:

The general aspect of financial affairs continues favorable, and all the movements in the money market indicate a gradual but healthy growth of confidence. The prominent features to-day were, a further decline in Exchange and an advance in uncurrent money. In the way of discounts, business has not yet been resumed, though lenders manifest a disposition to loosen the screws moderately. Under the most favorable circumstances it will be some days before capitalists will feel safe in discounting to any considerable extent. In the meantime the business community are standing up well under the pressure, and more complaints are heard of the stagnation of business, than of a monetary stringency. To-morrow being a close holiday, two days' maturities had to be met to-day, and the payments, though large, were promptly made. Not all not bear of a protest of any importance. If the movements of the immediate future at the East, shall confirm the opinion expressed by leading financial men in New York, that the centre of the crisis has been turned, and that matters are now in the improving scale. Cincinnati business men will probably dind themselves through the panic without a single mercantile disaster of any serious character. While so many institutions and firms have fallen around us, this would be a most fortunate result, as it would afford most conclusive evidence of the stability of our varied industrial interests.

The market for New York Exchange opened at 1¼ prem, with a full supply and a moderate demand. The receipts from the South continue fair, and in addition a moderate amount is being created by merchants. Besides, as prices tend downwards, consumers hold off, and sellers become anxious to realize. We had the opposite of this when prices took a sharp upward turn, sellers hoarding in anticipation of higher figures, and buyers anxious to supply themselves in advance, apprehending a difficulty in buying at any price. The market opened, we remarked, at 1¼ prem, selling, dealers paying 1 prem, but later in the day banker's checks were offered to sellers at 1 prem, and business left off with a downward tendency. It seemed as if prem might go to ¾ prem selling on Friday. The Valley Bank reported a very moderate demand for ¾ prem from its customers, with heavy receipts. For Philadelphia checks the rates were par buying and ¼ prem selling. New York checks in that market, today, were ¾ prem. While the latter figure is maintained there, and New York checks can be had here at 1, or even 1¼ prem, the latter will be used by parties who have debts to pay in Philadelphia, in preference to check for the city specie payments. Nothing doing yet with Baltimore. The demand for gold, from hoarders appears to have been satisfied. There was a very trifling counter demand for it to-day at 1¼ prem, and late in the day round lots could have been had at 1@1¼ prem. The market closed with a downward tendency. In the bills there is nothing doing, and we omit quotations.

Several of the banking houses commenced taking uncurrent money to-day, from depositors, and the result is a large decline in the rates of discount. The buying rates is now quoted as follows:

Illinois, solvent	5 dis
Wisconsin	5 dis
Iowa	5 dis
Missouri	5 dis
Wheeling and branches	4 dis
Eastern Virginia	8@10 dis
Pittsburg	8 dis
Interior Pennsylvania	2@ 3 dis
Baltimore	2@ 3 dis
Tennessee, old banks	10 dis
North and South Carolina	10 dis
Georgia	10 dis
Alabama	20 dis

Indiana Free Bank, though nominally in the uncurrent list, is taken in business at par.

Stagnation prevails in the produce markets. There was a little done in wheat to-day at Saturday's closing prices, but after the New York report was received a nominal decline of 2@3c took place, no buyers in the market at outside of 73c for No. 1 spring in store, and the majority were offering only 70@72c for No. 2 and 1 in store. The market closed unsettled and dull. Some small lots of barley were taken at 50@60c for No. 1 to Extra, and oats at 32c delivered. There was some enquiry for flour, coming chiefly from parties outside of the trade, who want it for shipment to make Exchange. With the exception of one sale of 100 bbls good country Extra at $3,75, the transactions were not made public. Dressed Hogs were dull and slow of sale, but nominally unchanged. Packers, here, as elsewhere, are not disposed to take hold very actively just yet, and the market is further depressed by the scarcity of currency.

CHICAGO MARKET, NOVEMBER 29.

Receipts at Chicago, Wednesday, included 159 bbls flour, 9,628 bus wheat, 14,360 bus corn, 1,530 live hogs and 609 dressed hogs In reference to the market the Tribune says:

The receipts of hogs, live and dressed, amount to 2,205. The market for live hogs at the opening was very firm at $4@5,10 gross; but in the afternoon the feeling was much tamer, and the sales ranged from $4,30@5. The quality of the hogs, however, was not prime, and there was no actual decline. Dressed hogs were dull and heavy, under a better supply, and sales of heavy logs were made at $5,75@6.

Provisions continue dull and heavy. About 400 bbls mess pork was sold at $16, for the Canadian trade. Lard is dull and entirely nominal. Tallow declined ¼c, with sales of prime city at 9¾c, and country at 9½c. Hides were dull and heavy, and prices have declined 1@2c.

The flour market was more active and a shade easier. About 7,000 bbls were sold at $4,85@4,95 for spring extras. Wheat was dull and 1c lower—closing heavy. About 25,000 bushels were sold at 59c@60c for No. 1 spring; and 42½@43c for No. 2 spring.—There was a better demand for new corn, and about 7,000 bushels were sold at 26c in store, and 30@31c on track and delivered, according to sample. Oats were dull, with sales at 17@17½c in store. Rye and barley were neglected and dull. Highwines were more active and steady at 15c. There is little or no demand for Timothy seed and the market was dull and almost entirely nominal.

MARINE NEWS.

ARRIVALS—PROBABLE LOSS OF THE MILWAUKEE BELLE.

The arrivals since Thursday include the propellers Neptune and Tonawanda, from Buffalo, and the schooners James Christie, York State and ——, loaded with coal and salt.

Several sail vessels arrived yesterday, the names of which were not entered at the Custom House up to five P. M.

The Captain of the Neptune brings a report that another accident had happened to the schooner Milwaukee Belle, by getting foul of some other vessel in the Straits. She lost both anchors, bowsprit, and all her head gear, and when last seen was under way in that condition. This was previous to the gale of Saturday, and wehelieve she has not been heard from since.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The propeller Vermont, of the Northern Transportation Company, reported ashore at the upper end of Lake Erie, is safe at Toledo.

The propeller Cuyahoga lost her mate, ALEXANDER CAMPBELL, overboard, on Lake Michigan. His place of residence was Trenton, Mich., where he leaves a wife and family,

The man lost overboard from the brig F. B. Gardner, on Lake Huron, was FREDERICK NELSON. He leaves a wife and three children in Chicago,

THE WABASH VALLEY.

Passengers on the boat assert that when Captain MORGAN "brought up" on the Muskegon bar, the mud clicked up the feed-pipes of the engine, so that danger of explosion seemed to add another ugly feature to the affair.

Two consignments of flour have been got out without much damage, and passed through Detroit on Tuesday. Possibly some more may be saved. The boat was broken up in the gale of Saturday.

THE DACOTAH'S CARGO.

The Dacotah had a cargo of 992 tons of merchandize, mostly covered by insurance.

The following are the names of some of the principal consignees having goods on board:

Milwaukee—S. C. West, A. Campbell, W. S. Brown, N. B. Caswell, Newman & Zahrlant, J. W. Hoyt, F. Kittmeyer, W. M. Sinclair, N. S. Caswell, Wm. Caswell, Lefevre & Green, S. Benaner, E. L. Jared, Littell & Baker, Boynton, Smith & Co., J. J. McGrath, W. S. Wells, J. Nazro & Co., Candee & Co., G. D. Norris, D. Holcomb, M. C. Cook & Co., Blair & Person, J. L. Davis, G. H. Hewitt & Sons, Barnes Bros., J. M., A. Fowler, H. Saville, I. G. Goodrich, F. F. Adams, C. C. Dewey, Johnson & Son, J. L. Davis.

At Chicago—A. G. Throop, Trochen & Son, Lill & Divers'yr, C. Kellogg, N. Hart, H. W. Andrews, J. Durand, Brothers & Co., W. Scrin, Robert Kember, Frank Farnam, W. Blair & Co., Mather Graf, W. W. Wright, Geo. Dodge & Co., Rambault & Mayne, Botsford & Co., Isaac Cook, A. McDonald, H. W. Austin, H. W. Strong, Larrabee & North, W. T. Dickey.

THE WRECK OF THE BARK TORRENT.

The Buffalo Commercial, of Tuesday evening, furnishes the following particulars of the loss of the bark Torrent, reported in our issue of Tuesday morning as having gone ashore. It says:

The bark Torrent, from Erie, bound for Detroit, loaded with coal, apples, cider, and pumps, went ashore on Saturday, five miles below Barcelona, having parted from her anchor. The captain and crew stayed on the wreck until Monday morning, having a severe time of it, narrowly escaping death from freezing. Several brave artisopts were made by the inhabitants living near to board her during the time with their skiffs, but in each case they were swamped and could not succeed. The vessel's bottom is reported to be out of her.

TOTAL WRECK OF THE SCHOONER R. C. WINSLOW.

The Detroit Advertiser of Thursday says:

The steam tug Ontario arrived yesterday morning from Middle Island, Lake Erie, whither she had gone a week since to the relief of the large schooner R. C. Winslow, which went ashore the 15th inst. The Ontario had barely time to commence operations when the gale compelled her to desist. Before she could again get to work, the elements had rendered all aid unnecessary, and the vessel a total wreck. Her sails, running rigging, cable, furniture, and other moveable stuff, were saved, and, with the crew, were brought here by the Ontario. Her anchors, chains, and standing rigging were left behind, and can yet be recovered when the weather moderates. She now presents the appearance of a grand locberg.

PASSED DETROIT.

On Wednesday:

Up—Bark Grace Greenwood; schrs. Petrel, New London, L. B. Shepard.

PROPELLER QUINCY CHARTERED.

The propeller Quincy, we understand, has been chartered by the Detroit & Milwaukee Railway Co., to run during the winter, in the place of the Wabash Valley, lost in the late gale.—Detroit Advertiser.

NAVIGATION CLOSED.

For River closed entirely over last Saturday night, the 24th inst. We believe that the fall business is nearly accomplished, except one or two cargoes of shingles which were in the river, and another on her way here, but of course cannot get in.—Green Bay Advocate, Nov. 29th.

PARTICULARS OF THE DISASTERS AT GODERICH.

From the Buffalo Express of Thursday:

GODERICH, C. W., Nov. 26, 1860.

MESSRS. A. M. CLARK & CO.—Gentlemen:—No doubt some interested parties will be anxious to hear the particulars of the two vessels that were driven ashore by the heavy gale and snow storm on Saturday last. The A. J. Nicholson, loaded with grain from Chicago, came ashore about 8½ Saturday evening. She would have made the harbor, only her sails and rigging were all frozen and unmanageable. The crew reached the shore by a line from the vessel to the land. Their clothing was all frozen, and had to be chopped off with an axe. The captain was almost used up, having been up to his waist in water and ice since 5 o'clock in the morning.

The brig Curtis Hinan, with grain from Chicago, came ashore about an hour after the Nicholson. The crew were taken off by the aid of the people on shore. Several of the crew were very badly frozen; and had to get their clothes cut off with axes, being encased in solid ice.

Both the vessels are lying on the beach, within a line fired yards of the North Pier, and about fifty yards from each other. They are lying on a sandy beach, and can be boarded between the seas with dry feet.—The weather has been intensely cold for this season, the thermometer being at 10° Saturday evening.

Yours, &c. W. W. S.

DISTRESSING ACCIDENT.

Correspondence Chicago Tribune.

ST. JOSEPH, Berrien Co., Mich. Nov. 25.

A black schooner, name unknown, loaded with rye, went ashore nine miles north of this place yesterday. All hands are supposed to be lost. One body was pulled off the wreck awfully mangled about the face.

The vessel is a total wreck. She had a new foresail, which was split to the wind to split. The sail, with the rye, while were furled. The above were all the particulars I could get from my informant (who tows the body of the wreck.) Will send further particulars when I get them. In haste,

TOM. B. KING.

[The above vessel is probably the schooner Hurricane, which sailed from this port a few days since, loaded with rye.—ED. TRIBUNE.]
